WELCOME TO BROADWAY PALM'S 30TH SEASON

Dear Season Subscriber:

30 years ago, my family and I dreamed of opening our largest dinner theatre ever and set our sights on Southwest Florida. In 1993, the population was just over ½ million people and lucky for us the area was about to take off on decades of explosive growth. Our timing could not have been more perfect and the community immediately embraced Broadway Palm and our commitment to terrific entertainment, quality food and friendly service, all at an affordable price.

I would like to sincerely thank you and the thousands of season subscribers who have supported us over so many years. Many of you have been with us since we opened, while some of you have just recently become subscribers. You've stuck with us through major hurricanes, a great recession, and even a pandemic! We would not be here today if it wasn't for your loyal support and patronage of the Broadway Palm.

We've put together a wonderful 30th Anniversary Season that captures the essence of our commitment to produce some of the biggest Broadway shows. We also want to pay tribute to the hit shows from seasons past, many that remain some of the most requested shows still today. Our extra special season opener is an original musical revue that will tell the story of Broadway Palm through the many musicals we have produced over the past 30 years. And to really kick off our anniversary season, we are bringing the singular sensation, A Chorus Line back to the stage. We'll celebrate the holidays with the timeless classic Irving Berlin's White Christmas and rolling into 2023 we'll bring back our number five show of all-time, an all-new production of Andrew Lloyd Webber's Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. At the height of season, after waiting for years, I'm thrilled to bring you Jersey Boys! This musical biography of the Four Seasons tells the rise, tough times, personal clashes, and the ultimate triumph of a group of friends whose music became symbolic of an entire generation. Another hit that landed itself in our Top 10 all-time selling shows will make a return engagement...Sister Act. And then we'll be cutting loose with the popular 80s hit Footloose! Finally, to close out our season we'll be heading under the sea with the family summer musical; Disney's Little Mermaid. We've also selected five comedies for the Off Broadway Palm and five concerts to round out your selections for our 30th Anniversary Season.

I can't wait for you to join us in celebrating all that the Broadway Palm has accomplished over the past three decades and I'm looking forward to a bright future for another decade to come!

Theatrically yours,
